

A different view of Venezuela and Hugo Chavez

EYEWITNESS TO A REVOLUTION

CHARLIE HARDY, author of
COWBOY IN CARACAS

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 25, 2010
6:00 PM RECEPTION -- 6:30 PROGRAM
PLAZA LIBRARY
4801 Main, Kansas City, MO

Charlie Hardy, a former Catholic priest from Wyoming, works with the poor of the barrios of Caracas Venezuela. Hear about the Bolivarian revolution from their viewpoint. Saul Landau described Charlie's book as "an antidote to the poisonous

US government mantra against Venezuelan President Hugo Chávez. Ironically, Cowboy isn't about Chávez, but about the exciting processes he has helped initiate and about the awakening of Venezuela's poor whom the US media neglects."

Sponsored by:
The Cross Border Network
Holy Family Faith Community
American Friends Service Committee
Colombia Support Network
Peaceworks
The Loretto Community of Kansas City

For more information contact:

Joel Jones, Plaza Library 816-701-3581

Judy Ancel, Cross Border Network – 816-835-4745